1. One of the most prominent communists in Parana is Nelson Cata Preta, who is the Assistant Traffic Director on the railroad and President of a workers' association known as the Sociedade 26 de Outubro ("26th of October Society"). Preta has recently become active again, after a period of retirement from political life, and has recommenced his work of organizing railroad men's meetings with a definite communist tinge. He is said to be well educated and to have in his home one of the largest collections of Communist literature in the State.
2. Alcevir Andrioli, head waiter in the railroad restaurant managed by the Sociedade 26 de Outubro, and protege of Dr. Vieira Netto, Communist Deputy of Parana, is serving as Preta's aide de camp. Andrioli and Preta hold daily conferences.
